Advice To The Lovelorn By BEATRICS PAIRFAX. Dear Miss Patriago Kindly tell me what would be a suitable birthday present for a girl of 18 to give to a young man of 19. We have been friends for two years. two years. Feart ... Find our what his hobby is and perhaps you can give him something in this line-books, tooks, a looded, a silver pentil, a picture for his room, a pair of ouf links- any single sift which isn't too personal and represents one of his preferences will do.

IS IT PROPER.

Doar Miss Fairfax: Do you think it proper that a young man should go about with many girl friends when he has a chance to keep company with a girl of 307 I am 19, but look girl of 30? I am 18, but look younger, but she does not mind this, and as she has often told me to go to partles and dance with other girls. I am asking your advice in full matter. P. S. It is quite proper if you are not entered. In go to he many partles and inness as you want to. Ninsteen is postly young for a boy to he "re-erred," as it were. REPEAT BUSINESS THE LIFE OF TRADE

But in order to get repeat inninens you must give nonething in return. You must not, in my tusiness, permit your name to be used at the bettom of "oil ads" just because it's free-things you get for nothing generally come bigh in the long run. In offering you "HERVICE OIL CORPORATION" stock at pur you must realize I could be effering you descens of others, but I sho't helless the "dosens of athers" would get me the repeat business that "SERVICE" buyers will. Don't forget to "SUT IT OVER."
